Who We Are

DEER MOUNTAIN VILLAGE IS OWNED BY FATHER-SON ENTREPRENEURS ALEC AND GERARD KEATING, OPERATING AS KEATING RESOURCES.

Over his career, my father, Gerard has acquired, developed, and sold real estate assets valued at over $1 billion across seven states and nearly every real estate sector. His notable projects include over one million square feet of industrial development in Tampa, FL, the construction of the only underground dolomite limestone mine in Chicagoland, and the acquisition and disposition of the Louisiana Delta Plantation, which was the largest contiguous farm in the continental United States at the time of the transaction.

I, Alec, joined Keating Resources in 2020 after graduating from Southern Methodist University with a BBA in Real Estate Finance. Since joining the company, I have been directly involved in the purchase, development, and sale of over $150 million in real estate assets, participating in every step of the process, including property identification, underwriting, land planning, capitalization, marketing, legal, and sales.

Since our first acquisition in the Black Hills in 2020, we have invested over $70 million to purchase, and developed 300 residential home lots across four communities, two commercial properties, and the largest casino to open in Deadwood in 15 years. In the past 24 months alone, we have generated over $50 million in residential lot sales.

We are proud to have made a significant impact and look forward to a bright future. Despite impressive population growth over the past three years, the Mountains of Western South Dakota remain a well-kept secret—but not for long.

Our Vision

WHAT MAKES AN EXTRAORDINARY COMMUNITY?

This is a question that we have dedicated thousands of hours to, traveling from coast to coast in search of the answer. We have drawn inspiration from the best and networked with the individuals instrumental in their success.

The most successful communities share many traits: natural beauty, proximity to vibrant towns and recreational opportunities, exceptional architecture and design, and high-end amenities. However, one particular characteristic stands out among the finest communities—they are led by a team with a singular vision that is fully invested in its realization.

Deer Mountain Village has quickly become one of the premier private adventure communities in the United States. Here, we have it all: stunning natural beauty, high-end amenities including skiing, proximity to Deadwood and Spearfish, and architecture and design that rival the most famous mountain towns in the West.

Our commitment as developers has been proven through the successful restoration of East Mountain's ski lift, the infrastructure supporting 104 completed lots, and the enthusiastic market response from buyers across the country. We will remain involved in every step of the process, ensuring that our vision for Deer Mountain Village comes to life.

The Mountain

Deer Mountain hosts an array of outdoor amenities that cater to both winter and summer sports, making it an adventure seeker's dream.

Whether you're a skiing fanatic, seasoned mountain biker, or casual hiker, there is something for everyone at Deer Mountain Village. The mountain is home to two lifts, one on the East Side, and one on the West. And if you're looking for relaxing outdoor activities, head to the pickleball courts, pool, spring-fed mountain trout pond, or fly fishing minutes away.

Many people do not ski but every age enjoys snow tubing. Deer Mountain Village hosts the longest private snow tubing hill in the USA at 956' served by a handle tow supporting five action packed lanes.

Clubhouse Amenities

Inside the Clubhouse, families can enjoy light meals and drinks at the bar and cafe while catching up on their favorite shows on the TV or challenging each other to a game of pool. The lounge and library provide an additional level of comfort and convenience for guests.

Outside, the fun continues with a pool and hot tub perfect for soaking up the sun, a sprawling outdoor lounge space ideal for relaxing with loved ones, two pickleball courts, and a tennis court perfect for those who love friendly competition.

The Clubhouse

At the base of Deer Mountain, The Clubhouse is the ultimate haven for rest, relaxation, and socializing.

Whether you're looking to unwind after an exciting day of exploring, looking for a fun-filled day of activities, or a balance between the two, The Clubhouse has got you covered.

The clubhouse and attached amenities will open late summer 2026.

Community Inspiration

We have studied numerous communities, drawing particular inspiration from Victory Ranch near Park City, UT, Tributary in Teton Valley, ID, Alys Beach along Highway 30A in Florida, and Sea Ranch in Sonoma County, California. Each of these communities has flourished due to the visionary planning of their developers. Here are the key lessons we have learned:

ARCHITECTURAL GUIDELINES

Each community adheres to strict architectural standards, ensuring a consistent and harmonious aesthetic across all structures. For example, both Victory Ranch and Tributary mandate the use of high-quality, authentic exterior materials, eschewing vinyl siding and vibrant colors in favor of a timeless aesthetic. This approach creates an enduring ambiance, ensuring these communities will remain as appealing in 30 years as they are today. Consequently, we will enforce rigorous guidelines to guarantee that every home built is of the highest quality. Evidence suggests these standards will enhance the value of your home and investment.

RENTAL POLICIES

In these communities, rental homes are either unavailable to the public or managed in-house by the development company. At Victory Ranch and Tributary, vacation homes are exclusively available to lot owners, effectively limiting access to friends and family of the owners. This policy fosters a close-knit community and minimizes the risk of property damage and cultural disruption by transient renters. At Alys Beach, rentals are meticulously managed by the development company, which enforces strict rules and regulations.

“...but how is it that I’ve heard so little of this miracle and we, toward the Atlantic, have heard so much of the Grand Canyon, when this is even more miraculous. All the better eventually that the Dakotas are not on the through line to the coast.”

— Frank Lloyd Wright

NATURAL BEAUTY

The Black Hills are the highest mountain range in the United States east of the Rockies. From rugged mountains and beautiful canyons in the northern hills to striking rock formations in the southern hills, streams filled with trout, and forests home to black hills spruce, aspen, birch and ponderosa, there is no shortage of natural beauty and geological diversity in the Black Hills.

LOW TAXATION

South Dakota is a state well known for low taxation and regulation, promoting investment and business growth. South Dakota has no state income tax, no state capital gains tax, no state inheritance tax, and an annual real estate tax which equals approximately 1.75% of property value one of the lowest in the USA.

DIVERSE ECONOMY

A common issue in many mountain destinations is that there is no real economy to speak of outside of tourism, and this creates labor issues. This is not the case in the Black Hills. The Region is home to a diverse economy which includes agriculture, mineral extraction, gaming, tourism, and a strategic airforce base home to our nation's stealth bombers. Also, the year around population of the region is over 150,000 and up to 225,000 during the summer months.

ACCESSIBILITY

Located near the center of the nation, the Black Hills are highly accessible. Rapid City Regional Airport hosts daily flights from Dallas, Denver, Charlotte, Phoenix, Minneapolis, Chicago, Las Vegas, Houston, and Atlanta. For Private Flyers, Black Hills Airport in Spearfish has a 6,400' runway which can accommodate most private aircrafts.

Exceptional Value in a Serene Setting

Discover the extraordinary value of Deer Mountain Village's land, priced from $440,000 per acre. Compared to other renowned ski towns like Aspen and Park City, where prices soar well into the millions per acre, this tranquil mountain haven offers an enticing opportunity for both homeowners and investors. With boundless potential for appreciation, Deer Mountain Village stands as an excellent choice for those seeking an idyllic lifestyle without the premium price tag.
